

The best dressed man in our town
Who is he?

The answer is easy. He is the man who comes to us and says, "Make a suit for me!"

And the clothes he gets have that indescribable snap and character you have hoped and hunted for in your clothes. The clothes that are made to individual requirements—to fit your personality as well as your person.

When your tailor?

Wear tailor-made clothes. Have both the appearance and the feeling of being well dressed. We show a wealth of spring fabrics and models... come and see them now!

CHURCH NEWS

FIRST BAPTIST
J. Whitfield Green, Pastor.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Gordon Solomon, superintendent. We are sure thankful for the loyalty of our Sunday school student body—they are faithful as the clock in their attendance. This cheers and inspires your teachers more than you can ever know. Thanks.
Morning service, 11 o'clock. Subject, "The High Water Mark of the Gospels and Epistles."
Evening service, 7:45 o'clock. Subject, "The Main Divide." "There is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at its flood, leads on to fortune." We are the makers of our own destiny.
Baptist Young People's Society, 6:35. We are just a fraction of the thousands of young people that meet every Sunday night to worship in our respective churches. Why not join us and learn of the higher things of life? Welcome.
Wednesday night, people's meeting. Come and help be a help to the power house of the church. The prayer meeting is like the sun—it warms things up.
William G. Shepherd, a widely known American writer, says in the Christian Herald that the American home is not fulfilling its duty because there are 27,750,000 children in the United States that go to no church or Sunday school. Fathers and mothers, do you think this will mean anything to America 15 years from now? Just think it over.

Almshouse Romeo of 87 Leads Another Bride to the Altar

George Hickman, 87, an inmate of the county almshouse at Augusta, Ga., is a bridegroom for the second time since he entered the institution, 14 years ago. His bride, 74, is also an inmate, as was his first wife.

Sorting Them

At a country dance in Georgia, when the fiddlers had resigned their bows and taken their places on the platform, the floor manager rose. "Git yo' partners fo' a cotillion," he shouted imperiously. "All yo' ladies an' gemmen wit' shoes an' stockin's take yo' place in the middle of th' flo'. All yo' ladies an' gemmen dat wears shoes an' no stockin's, take yo' places immedjitly behind dem. An' yo' barefoot crowd, yo' just jig in roun' in th' corners."

Wrong Party

A local real estate man tells this one. He was taking dinner with a doctor's family one evening when the phone rang. The doctor answered. Turning to his wife, he called in alarm: "Quick, get me my catch! A man in a dying voice says he cannot live without me!" "Wait," said the wife, who had picked up the receiver. "That call is for Edith."

She Had Plenty

A negro woman of mammoth proportions and inky complexion was in an automobile accident. She was transported to the hospital, where she soon regained consciousness. The doctor, seeking to comfort her a bit, said to her: "You undoubtedly will be able to obtain a considerable amount of damages, Mrs. Johnson." "Damages!" said Mrs. Johnson. "What Ah want wit damages? Ah got enough damages now. What Ah want is repairs."

He Would, All Right

An Englishman was teaching a Scotch business friend how to play golf. On the first tee he poured out a copious stream of instructions, and wound up with the fine old maxim: "But remember, Sandy, whatever you do, keep your eye on the ball!" "I will that," said Sandy, who had just paid half a crown for it. "I dinna trust that caddie of mine at all."

No Car Owner Is Immune

Automobile accidents are no respecters of localities. They happen alike on crowded streets and lonely country roads.

Your turn to have a serious accident may come tomorrow. You may not be to blame, but a sympathetic jury may hold you liable for ruinous damages. Protect yourself against the financial loss that is sure to come some day.
